

KIDZ CLUB INFORMATION

KIDZ Club is for children ages 9 months-6 years to use while their parent/guardian are using the fitness center. KIDZ Club is not intended for usage by parent/guardian who are attending or watching a game, class or any other non-fitness related activity of another child/parent/self. All children must be an immediate family member of the fitness participant.

Reservations are NOT required. Availability is on a first-come, first-serve basis. Check in with KIDZ Club staff to be sure there is room for your child before paying at the front desk. A maximum number of children will be set based on availability of space, staff and enrollment.

USING KIDZ CLUB

- » Check in with KIDZ Club Staff to be sure there is room for your child before paying at the front desk. If you are using a punch card, the customer service staff will punch your card for the first hour. If more service time is used, staff will punch additional hour when you pick up your child. Families that pay the daily drop-in rate will need to pay at the front desk and submit the receipt to the staff. If more than one hour is used, you will be asked to return to the front desk and pay for the extra time before you pick up your child(ren).
- » Fees are based on a one-hour minimum. There will be a two-hour maximum per day.
- » Children must be signed in and signed out by the same parent/guardian.
- » Food or drinks are NOT allowed inside KIDZ Club room.
- » It is strongly recommended that you take your child to the bathroom before coming to KIDZ Club. If your child requires bathroom use while attending, a staff member will accompany them to the family restroom and stand outside the door and then escort them back to the childcare room. Staff will not assist with any bathroom needs.
- » A diaper changing area is available in the family restrooms. Parents are responsible for changing diapers and will be notified by staff should a child require changing.
- » To protect all the children and staff attending KIDZ Club, we will not admit a child that shows any symptom of illness or who is home from school that day.
- » Staff will not administer medication.
- » The KIDZ Club family information form must be completed and on file with staff. This form needs to be completed once every calendar year.
